

To Date a Man, You Must Understand a Man:

ever again and you will change your life for the better!

Many women love their man unconditionally and can't understand why he won't reciprocate. "Sex is great and my Mom loves him," they say.

Money is not important (I'm ruling out gold diggers here) to most women. Most women live a life of scarcity, so when a weak man arrives at her door she invites him in like a wet kitten. If she has money, then what's the problem?

I'll tell you what the problem is! He is a wet kitten! Women try to mold this man into greatness. They don't understand this is impossible for any length of time. This wet kitten needs to go back outside and grow into a lion and you cannot do it for him. Instead, you let him inside to pee on the rug for months or even years, but before you know it, you are thirty-nine years old, desperate for kids and single.

Of course, there are exceptions to everything. If a twenty-year-old is on his way to completing his engineering degree or a guy is nearing the end of a vocational school course to be a car mechanic, he knows his realization to provide is close to fruition. These men might be ready to love a woman.

You need to choose men and not be chosen. There are millions of wet kittens out there but there are millions of full grown lions out there too. In order to experience love you need to pick from the full-grown lion bin!

There is one catch - the full-grown lions don't patronize the usual watering holes. Very few Mufasas are bar flies hanging out on a Saturday night. They don't need to chase women.

They attract women where ever they go!

Lions are choosers too. They want interesting, motivated, high-value women - women with integrity and boundaries; women who know what they want in life and in a man.

I will make you this woman.

Some things to remember:

- Understand the influences society puts on men;
- Understand the ingredients or DNA making-up a man - including competition, challenge, self-worth, toughness and motivation to make money and provide;
- Money brings men status and is very important to all men, even though it is not necessarily important to you;
- How a man is viewed by others, mainly male role models, correlates directly with his self-esteem;
- Men are not able to love themselves, or women, until they have attained what they consider as success;
- Women tend to date wet kittens because you feel you can change them. You can't! Wet kittens pee on the rug, go out and never come back;

- Lions don't hang out at the usual watering holes - they are choosers, just like you will be soon!
